I've done severnal google searches, forum searches, and have searched several different fan sites. But to no avail... Anyone got a nice, crisp, clear Dead 6 logo I can use?

I think I saw someone using one as an avatar on the Renevo or Renalert forums...I'll look around a bit.

Ask Dante if he has any you can have. After all, he is doing a dead-6 mod.

Actually there is a very good one.

Look through all the loading screens there is a fantastic one right there. If it wasn't there, i wouldn't have told you to look through it.

I know the one that you're talking about IRON-FART. But the one you are talking about is partially faded and partially cut off. I was looking for one like Taximes made.

That's one is perfect! Thank you.
