But I only see them playing, not even bothering to post in this forum!

Whats the matter!? It looks so dead around here! Lets make it alive again! Whenever you go to the server, tell people to go to the forums!

yup, it may not be the newest game but it intruduces almost a new genre of FPS and beats CS any day

I try to post here but unfortunately I get an InvaId_Session error 95% of the time. Obviously, this is with an exception or I tried to post this many times with eventual success.

I have noticed that yes there are a lot of people that play online but do not come to the forums. Most of the people that I have seen in both are very very good. I'd say I'm way better than most people that play Renegade, but compared to the people that come to the forums I'd say I'm slightly below average.
