If you're going to use Oasis Flying, then I guess I better upload the version that works properly.

I'll have it uploaded somewhere by tomorrow.

Ok, but hurry up.

It will be good to see a new variety of fan maps on-line with lots of players on, wonder how Oasis will turn out...

- 1) why dmcentre and not ts version? it's much better.
  - 2) don't use tobruck or basints, use Ravine.
  - 3) GJ
  - 4) i'll be there
  - 5) see above

Out off all days, the site I use won't let me in today. :rolleyes:

Is there anywhere else I can upload the map?

Edit: NM, I updated it on renmaps instead.

DaveGMM, you won, I fucking give up.

I can't count on anybody anymore, I put my trust on some people, but never get what I want, so how do I end up? Like an idiot.

I'm a politician, a sad politician, So many promises, but can't bring shit, so many people were counting on my for the MMN...

I'm crying right now, why? I'm about to leave 1 year of history behind me, I enjoyed been here, but it'd be a shame to stay, what else can I say? It was an adventure, but it was also the worse failure I've encountered.

Farewell brothers and sisters, this trip got me tired.

I'll be taking a break to think of my future, bad or not.

I just can't take it anymore...I need a rest...Can't trust anybody in this world.

*EDIT: After watching some humor movies (always good) I've decided to stay, but seriously...I'm still pissed.

Try_leeYou were crying over a game?

Well, considering that this community is like a second family to him. I'm sure it is to many people in here, including me.

When I'm pissed off at the world, I can always count on this community to cheer me up an liven my spirits. Aprime tried to please everybody by hosting a MMN, but wasn't able to, and therefore felt like he let down a very large amount of people important to him.

This community can be considered a second life to many other people, because in here you can get respect based on manners, not like in real life where manners mean jack shit and there are many social statuses which degrade people.

Believe it or not, an internet community has a large effect on someone. Even though we may have not met each other in person, we respect each other and are technically very good friends.

Being let down by people you trust always hurts, even more so, when them failing you, causes you to fail even more people.

Umbral_DelaFlare is very right here. this is a community. we stay together and try not to let people down. i was looking forward to playing those maps. but yes, renegade is my other life on the computer!

Umbral_DelaFlare is right. I've been in this community for over a year now. I don't even play Renegade anymore. I stayed here for the the people (well, at least the good ones). We stick together, especially in times of trouble.

Renegade may not be the greatest game, but it sure has the greatest community.

And Aprime, remember that man is fallible, but God is not. Putting all your faith in people will dissappoint you. Might I suggest you click here

And have a very Merry Christmas everybody! :xmas:

That has nothing to do with it Dave. What he believes is his own decision. It doesn't matter if you want to assume for him, because he's got enough problems with you as is. Just back off for once in your life, seriously. I don't know if Aprime feels the same way, and I don't know what exactly happened, but right now I don't feel to good either. In my mind I used to be one of his left-hand mans with Madtone. While that isn't true anymore, I still should've been there. Personally I'd enjoy figuring out what the hell happened here. But the ignorant statement there was not neccessary, and I don't think we need ot start a religion discussion just because you felt that you needed to make some people fight because of you being a little punk.

Just giving Aprime the best of my advice, lmdgr8one. I wasn't trying to start anything (if you were talking about me). I'm not really sure what happened between Aprime and DaveGMM, though. So I'll stay out of this until I learn more about this.
