As far as I have heard there is no glitch with the buddy list not allowing you to join games from there unless they are full. You could just be having problems because I join games from my buddy list all the time and it always works unless the game is full.

[quote="TheGunrun"]or a posible mod like final renegade[quote]

Final Renegade isn't a mod, it is . . . something else . . .

It could also be that your friend is playing on a fan map that you don't have.
