Is this ever going to return? I thought it was great. If any of you have a 24- 28 player server and you dont have time to set up a fan mod map night well i'm willing to do it all for you, ill admin the server every saturday evening once a week GMT. Please reply to this thread if your intrested so we can plan this off but it will be good to bring it all back.

Yes but if we did it weekly with maps that fans want it would be a good idea, I know Renstation do one but Beany did the best one every week and I want to do the same.

I have one available, if you want it to happen ask for the info and set it up yourself...I suggest you to find a second one though since the max I can go [now that I have a player limit...] is 16 players.
