If there is anyone here who can help me find some TV commercials I'd be really grateful. I've been searching for a looong time, and havn't found anything substancial.

Commercials I want:

-Guinness Beer - Bet on Black

-Guinness Beer - Horses

-Guinness Beer - Dreamer

(beer commercials own)

-Adidas - "Belly's gonna getcha" (May be known as "Runner". Its a guy running to get fit, and a huge belly is following him)

Its SO hard to get these, I have searched for AAAAGGGGEEEEESSSSSSSS. And they are all at least 2 years old. Esp. the Guinness ones. But they are all worth watching over and over.

I have a digital TV decoder. I'll record them if I come across any of them. I know at least one of them plays here in the UK.

OT: Been watching Little Britain on BBC 3- quite funny

You couldn't have looked too hard seeing as they've got a whole archive on the guinness site.

No, I already knew about those on the guinness site, but those are in flash format and are very small. And they only have a few. I was wanting to get them in a .mpeg format of something. Any general movie format.

Yes, I just looked again.

They seem to have made their collection smaller since I last visited the site, sorry I couldn't help.
