It was wierd b4. Today I got back on what I thought to be "WOL" there was only one server. Christines and then on top of that there was only 4 ppl there. Then supposiidly the whole time were on "REOL" even though I was not logged in to that service. Very confusing if you ask me...

Yea, if you hit refresh you would have seen DosSvr, it was because the WOL secondary link servers were down and the REOL software was letting you connect directly to the main servers.. If im not mistaken.
