Hey there, I've been playing the single player missions up until the level "Tomorrow's Technology Today". I have two keycards (green and yellow) and I unlocked the double gates... I destroyed the obelisk in the 2nd base, where the temple is. When you head north, you enter a 2nd gate. The gate after that one (facing west) gives access to the 3rd base (with the power plant, comm center, etc.)
But I can't seem to open that gate. What do I have to do?
Here's a little map to show what part I am talking about.
Oh, and ignore the dots. They are there so the map won't look worse than it already is.

Thanks in advance!

IIRC, you go through the ruins, past the crashed Scrin ship, to the fourth area containing the Conyard and Airstrip. The OTHER gate to area 3 should be accessible from here, at which point you can run across area 3 to reach the gate you're having problems with.

Hey thanks, I completely missed the scrin airship. I suddenly found this little passage next to the gate, hehehe. Thanks, bud.
