If you've got any LEGITIMATE alterations to your game.exe file, we need to know about them. We're considering No-CD cracks legitimate. Don't worry about the BeaconPedestal.com no-cd crack... we already have that one.

Please contact me if you think you have one that we don't have.

ugh... I can't remember what type of no-CD patch I used. I'd mention where I got it, but there are "other" types of things you can get there, like cd-key generators.

But they don't work online...

Anyway all the good and clean crack sites have the same info & files. And there are only a handful of different no-cd patches floating around.

Okay. Turns out that all the original versions from different language versions (english, german etc) have all the same checksum. So I don't need them.

I have obtained about 5 no cd key patches/game.exe copies. I am posting the checksums here.
Use md5sum
on your game.exe to find out if you have a different no cd key patch other than the ones we already have. PM me then please.

The last one is the official 1037 game.exe.
