Why does everyone want to make super powerful weapons/powerups/units/characters? :rolleyes:

Does the words "game balance" mean anything to anyone? Everyone wants something like a giant mammoth tank that has 50 rocket launchers and cannons that do 1000 points of damage, or a stealth tank that doesn't decloak when it fires, and fires the obelisk weapon. :rolleyes:

Maybe I should make a mod where each base just has a big button that says "WIN" somewhere, and the first person to spawn and push it wins and gets 29837483423874 points. :sly:

I must agree with you Blazer, that's why I added some extra units to my RA1 Modifications, that were not controlable at RA1 but increases the balance.

I like to blow stuff up too, but I'm not going to download some 50M mod to play online, just to have my base invaded and blown up in 30 seconds by flying p3n1sm0bil3s.

I do I do ...

That is for fun but for a serious battle you need to have a fair team.
