Hi all ,,,, I am new to this forum so I hope this is the correct forum to post a game questiion. I am stuck in the mission in the town. I am suppose to meet with all my mates at the church, I have done that. I am now suppose to defend the church and kill all attackers. I have done that and there aren't anymore attackers.

That being said, all me and my mates are doing now is running around the church and going nowhere. I went back to the crashed helicopter and finished the secondary mission of eliminating engineers in the park. That didn't help though. Am I missing something here. All it says now for a mission is to eliminate the blackhand. I wish I could but nobody to kill now.

I like this game and sure would like to continue playing it, if somebody could help me with this. Thanks For and Help Michaeldavid

Either it's a bug, or you've missed the Black Hand somewhere. Search around the map and see if he's....somewhere....

....Can't remember

That happend to me too. I think that you just have to replay the mission, and it should work.

That mission is a bastard to replay from the beginning. After you've stopped the siege on the church, the game should move on to the next level. The game has been known to glitch now and then.. Try completing all secondary objectives, there's one nearby the church where you save a woman called babushka from 2 black hands that are interrogating her.

This problem did not happen to me. I can't exactly remember what I did, but in short, I killed everi black hand that landed, both artilleries(sorry for spelling), and both choppers. But I was confused a bit, because according to the mission objective, it looked like some black hand was in or on the church, but there was nothing at those locations. weird
