for various reasons I decided about 2 months ago to spend less time online particularly in regards to gaming. When I looked at the server tonite I noticed (with some sadness) that there were only three other servers that have been up for as long as this one. I didn;t see The Pitts so I didn;t include that in the number.I want to thank everyone who played on the server and everyone who was a mod or admin. It was a lot of fun. I will still be around the community as my recent posting has shown. I have made a lot of friends here and some not so friends.

Anyone who wants please stop by for a game or two. If you are banned for one reason or another PM me on n00bstories IRC and I will remove it foro the last few hours the server is up.

Again thanks for the fun

As I have said many many times! You are always welcome on our IRC, and forums. It's been a lot of fun man. I still owe you a whooping on CoD, and when UT 2004 is out, I'll get you on there too.

I hope you're counting crimson79 aka n00bsvr02.

Good times on fodsvr01... one of the first servers hosted by Server Matrix.

Black cell did not come before fodsvr01 and fastconn as a server has ben around for along time and as for the other person I put this up to thank people for playing not to argue who came first. I included those who are up 24/7 and have been up copnsistently since my server was up.

Black cell was not up before mine.

So again thanx to those who played on it.
