Doesn't mean your mind is dirty though, just the light colour sticks out against the darker color.

Quote:Research has shown that young children cannot identify the intimate couple because they do not have prior memory associated with such scenario. What they will see are the nine dolphins. Additional note: This is a test to determine if you already have a corrupted mind. If it's hard for you to find the dolphins within 3 seconds, your mind is indeed corrupted.

Yeah, the dolphins are actually harder to see than the couple. I doubt the research is actually true, if some other things on ebaum are any hint.

Why do people think sex is "dirty"? If done properly, sex can be a beautiful and amazing thing.

Anyway, I saw both the dolphins and the ermm, "intimate" couple. I doubt the "fact" is true though. Ebaumsworld is usually full of shit.

It's 'dirty' when it's pre-martial sex, according to some religions, 'dirty' meaning sinful.
