I am running server through remote system and i can get it to pop up in IRC chat but i can't get any commands to work. If i type !pl or anything else it says "no Players". Is there something i am not doing right? I need help. i know there are players cause i can see them talking and buying vehicles but i can't msg them or even check any of the commands.thanks for your help!!

sounds like renrem isn't working. Make sure you set the password and port correctly, matching what is in your server.ini and make sure your password is 8 chars.
