Another problem is that an untextured, non-unwrapped model of a Titan that barely resembles its TS counterpart and a sub-average soldier replacement is not really an excuse for four months of no updates at all.

Normally that's what I'd say, but they promised all these great things and insulted my work at the same time.

They promised they wouldn't release a beta test. They promised no bugs, no problems, huge support from EA, blah blah blah... If they don't want people calling them out on what they've promised, they shouldn't have made any at all.

True, but most of the promises came from AoD, the fuckwit who was just fired. Hopefully Renardin will be able to reshape Reborn into something playable and fun.

Besides, it seems kind of senseless to carry a grudge from one leader to the next. I do agree with you that they could show MUCH improvement, and when they do show that they are willing to receive advice and help, perhaps you can drop it and help them out a bit.

Then again, you could always continue this mod war.

phhs... some team/peoples change and get better... some dont change and still get annoying.

IMO thats make un-friendly community. i dont care of other mods try to do some competion. there is nothinf bad to this.. but bashing the other mod nah. that give a bad idea of the community. dunno why the "bashers" havent realized that and still continu with these childish actions.

Community could be better... and should be better. maybe renegade is dying.. maybe not. but if its the case.. we should do our best to keep it. JonWil, Blazer, Crimson, Dante do alot for the community and they dont bash anyone. yea there maybe some other people i aint mentioned... they do a good job too but some arent really friendly.

Should we support reborn? why not? there have been more ugly or unfinished mods than this one. Supporting it, helping it give renegade more opportunity. is there was only renalert.. well this might be boring after a while. im not saying the mod suck, im just saying diversity make the player happy. Reborn has alot of cool stuff. still isnt finished and have bugs. but which mods havent got any bugs? havent got ugly stuff at the beginning? none. Everyone mods started by being ugly and buggy. Yea they did released a buggy beta and un blanced but its fun to play. Having digable vehicle its cool. and idea wich was originaly impossible to do its makeable today. At leats THEY are trying to do something different.

do i am a pro reborn player? nah. i never liked the Tiberian series... only red alert one.

so back to the main idea, stop doing "yea lets bash mod X" thats very anoying and useless thats create spam for nothing... just make peoples anoyed by these post/reply.

ACK, everyone is entitled to their opinion, as many others have. One can often take things too far, hmm...I wonder what I could be talking about...

Food for thought: If you don't approve of something, express your opinion, but after you do that, leave it alone. I'm not saying you can't defend your point, but you don't need to take it beyond necessary. And don't be bullshitting yourself and others by saying that it is necessary for you to kill Reborn. It will die all by itself if it's horrible. Whether or not you like it or approve of it, may only change a few opinions but it's not gonna be enough to kill it. I know you would like to be known as the one who killed Reborn, even if you didn't, but seriously, just drop it. You've proven your point, over and over and over again. I haven't played Reborn so I don't have an opinion over the mod. Reborn may be absolutely horrible to the point where your bashing is necessary, but I doubt that's

In today's world, when enough people believe something whether it be opinion or not, it becomes accepted as truth. And I know that plenty of members here believe you are going too far. Since the members of this community think you are going too far, I am accepting your going too far as truth. Still may be an opinion, but it's being accepted as truth.

All I was tryin to do with that post was to nicely say SHUT THE FUCK UP, YOU FUCKING ARROGANT WANNABE "KNOW IT ALL" MOTHER FUCKER. Since you didn't take my hint, I had to resort to saying it flat out. Flame me all you want, say all the shit you want to me. Maybe that will make you lay the fuck off of the Reborn mod.

Oh and those "grandma-like" women at the barber shop don't count. You should know that those old women can't say anything bad. They're just being extremely nice to you. It's probably killing them inside to compliment you. Sorry, the truth hurts.

I don't have to insult you, you did a great job of it yourself... You basically just called yourself a tool without the ability to make judgements for yourself, so if a few others think a certain way, you think it's alright... God forbid you end up near the Klu Klux Klan or Assrammers Anonymous.

Where am I a wannabe? I am already who I want to be, myself; and nothing more. I don't know everything. I do know that I rarely speak on anything that I'm not well-versed in and able to argue about. Perhaps you could benefit from the same policy, to save yourself the embarassment of looking like a retard...

*Aircraftkiller scratches his head pondering that statement's logical purpose...

You mean to tell me that you've been down to the beauty careers training center on John Sims Parkway, Valparaiso, Florida, and have seen every person in training there?

the first two parts of your reply mean nothing to me, they show no purpose in making me seem less of an intelligent being. you may think differently. i can make decisions on my own, but when i can use that logic to my advantage, i will, and i did. and only you would twist it to make it sound like i can't think for myself. sorry, you misunderstood. it was meant to be that you are a "wannabe know-it-all." where do i get that from? you think you know everything about what makes a game fun and how things should be made. you may do things very well, but that doesn't make u supreme lord over all that is decent. also, you seem to think that you have the absolute perfect comebacks to everyone that disagrees with you. example: my original post here, i was just tryin to show that you're going too far, but instead you come back and have to show yourself better than me, because that's what kind of lame ass you are.

the last part you missed completely. i was referring to how old women are portrayed sitting in a salon gossiping while getting their hair and nails done. older ladies are always kind and say, no matter what, "well, aren't you the cutest thing." and by that i was making it sound like those girls at the salon were truly old women giving you the same type of compliment. get it now?

Right, and that's why you keep replying... :rolleyes: And why you can't even follow what you say. Figures...

Hey all, first time I've posted in over a year, good to see ol' ACK is still moaning his point across...

GL with finishing Reborn, I remember hearing about it a year ago and thought it was a bloody good idea. Keep it up.

Quote:Hey, are those sony headphones?

Sony MDR-CD180 headphones. Retail is around $20. Great sound.

Cool, I have a MDR-P180. Great bass sounds here too.

Psycoarmy weren't you going to release the secret of boning dogs to the community? I'd like to see a tutorial or something in the near future.

I am looking forward to playing Reborn. I really like the C&C Tiberian sun. But since people are saying that reborn has lots of bugs, then I will just have to wait for it to be fixed.

Who in here did not like Tiberian sun, and why?

Tiberian Sun was a pretty good game, but it lacked and wasn't as good as it was hyped to be. Tiberian Sun was a good game, but on the other hand, Reborn was/is a crappily done mod with little to no quality what so ever, "...because I liked Tiberian Sun more than..." should be the last reason to choose Reborn.

Anything Renardin does now will make the mod better, simply because it just can't get any worse than it is now.

Mine is stolen, and Id like to say "I love you guys!" on the inastudios.com forum im an outcast because i said i didnt like Inuyasha, and I "spammed" and said the "F" word, well thats kind of funny because its a forum for an R rated flash cartoon site. If they mean spamming as in summing up my post in 2 or 3 sentences instead of putting down a paragraph of mindless bullshit. Or it might be because I didnt take some shit from one of the "Gold" members. O.K. Ill shut up about my old forum.

yeah, it seems PsychoArmy has just popped into the forums for about a year now, shows something relatively interesting, such as his "Stick Death Xtreme 2 mod" or the small bones mod that featured the small infantry as well as playing as a dog/a similar looking alien creature from Half-Life. Last thing I think he ever showed and actually gave out was the first "Stick Death" which sucked compared to all the ideas in the second version that was supposed to be completed, and a mod called ARRRRG_V2, which was semi-interesting having new vehicle models. Don't count on him giving out something unless he has someone right behind him pushing him along.

Ok i apologies for nobody ever helping me, also ive been modding since the start of renegade modding, those mods are very old.

So i'm sorry, plus bak then i wasnt very wise with poly stick death extreme was overwhelmed with over poly madness , I can say i am using new skeletons for FOF, i do have more respect for poly now so i won't make that mistake again. I am currently studying 3d animations which is helping my animtions skills for new characters.

The dog thing tht u say was from half life, i never seen halflife things before so i didnt know it was stolen, advanzed or wotever his name gave it to me, found out about his theifiness the hard way, i copped all the blame for some reason, maybe its because all you people are so fooked in the head.

So i'm sorry again if you dislike me for some reason, but im not gonan change who i am for you.

heh, I don't really care about that half-life thing, looked interesting even though the only difference were the ones you showed had antennae. Remember the SDX2 mod since I visited it frequently when the site was up, you know with all the models like the 'Beast', new gun models, and those hinds. It is good though to produce something to the point of completion, then show it off! Well, guess some of your work will be seen in FOF. GL HF

And don't worry.....I'm not into manipulation much, don't care to do it much, since there usually isn't a cause to.
