Someone should just create a poll with two entries. I'd like to see how many people hate EA.

12 years olds shouldn't be talking about politics.

Yes they should, if they know what they are talking about. Come on down to the politics forum and check out the 475 post thread there.

Also, I'm 13.

Unless you weren't referring to me, which is possible, considering how you quoted three people and gave a vague response.

What are you talking about? Your views are so skewed by conservative propaganda like FOX news it's not even funny. And when have I ever vouched for communism? That's all for this thread from me: I'll be in the politics forum.

There you go again. FOX news is conservative propoganda. You just can't handel the fact that people are getting a fair view of everything now.

When have you ever vouched for communism? When you joined the liberal left-wing God and America haters.

-Talking in the wrong forum

-Turning a thread about EA into a really boring thread

EA is Evil. Renegade could be twice as better if EA released another patch. But they have their fingers up their ass with BF1942, worst fucking game ever.....Its pretty much get a vehicle or yur hella fucked. It take vehicles forevr to spawn. and spawning takes a half minute.

There are plenty of games not made by EA or one of their underlings. Like Civilization III, Call of Duty, the GTA series, and a few I'm looking forward to like Splinter Cell: Pandora Tomorrow, UT2K4, Evil Genius and plenty of others.

Yeah they left and went somewhere else and made Call of Duty, a mighty fine game alot better then boring ass MOHAA. But I think EA doesnt care about the Command & Conquer license anymore and they'll probobly like sell it to some other companie for cheap then they'll be like "Hey CnC Renegade has a big fan base lets make a Renegade 2, Bob get me some cofee!" Then the executive guy bitch smacks his cofee bitch.

This game has a puny fan base compared to games like counter-sh*t. A developer wouldn't waste money on making a Renegade 2.

I dont know why people play it, its slow as fuck paced like BF1942, you have to wait like 5 minutes to spawn, well I guess because the "Cool" people like it so its ok and people wont feel nerdy playing it because its a computer game. It wouldnt be a waste of money either, if it was well publised like BF1942, it would be just as successful. I dont know why ppl like BF anyway the graphics suck, the MP40 looks like it was carved out of wood and the HUD looks homo as well. CS is popular probobly because u get an assload of guns in it too. CS is gay now though its like corporationized, if u went to <http://www.counter-strike.net> and read the articles there u would know what im talking about.
