Quote Avidfun

Just registered and you think they are going to let you test RG? Fuck off clown and crawl back under your rock.

and FYI i have been playing Renegade Since Beta & have never Cheated Ever, Thats Probally why i'm still only Classed in my book as a half Decent player. & i was only offering Crimson a 24/7 public server if they ever needed one to do beta testing etc.
and i also run many other Game servers & websites and was offering Advertising or a possible DL location too when its Released To ease The pressure if needed.

So i Suggest you Get yourself some manners Little boy.

I don't "allow" them on... it's a public forum. Registration is free.

Well, that "little boy" is right, most people in the Renegade community would love to test out RG before anyone else.

The RG Team would most likely want someone who has gotten more involved with it on the forums. But as far as I know, they ain't letting anyone else outside the team test it anyway.
