Nope, not at all. Do you have problems researching why I do certain things before commenting about them? Probably not.

Genocide has a history of promising all these great things for Renegade. Then "something" happens, and it always dies off. He had something like eight levels he wanted to release, where are they? What about the WWII conversion? Oh, "hard drive failure," right... Don't keep backups of your own goddamn work? Or just an easy excuse to get out of something that's above your head?

All sorts of shit... I can't remember the details. I'm sure running a search on Genocide's name through the mod forum would help.

I don't care to prove it. I know what he's said he'd do and nothing has come of it. Eventually he'll dig himself a nice hole and probably never come out of it.

Like the time he faked his death. That was real smart.

We publically apoligized for that and even released a new patch the next day, if I remember correctly.

I can't see where pulling a half-assed prank on the community to drum up support for the 9915 patch and faking a death can honestly correlate together.

That's like saying "A rifle has destructive power comparable to that of a thermonuclear warhead."

Doesn't excuse his actions, lies, and whatever else he'll do in the future be it negative.

They're similar because they were both lies. I'm not excusing Genocide's actions, simply stating you need to be open to other mods besides your own in the Renegade community.

We never faked stopping RenAlert, get your fucking facts straight. Ack decided one day for one reason or another to stop working on the mod, he announced that the mod would be stopped, the next day after talking to other team members this time, he reconsidered, and tried to cover it up by saying it was a joke to get attention for the next patch. (Dante even replied to the thread on this forum that Ack announced it in and said that it wasn't a joke.)

FFS, then ACK should have used common sense and simply stated the truth. But no, he had to go and create a big ole' scene that made the mod team look VERY unprofessional.

I'm only human, I claim to be nothing more than that. I am prone to making mistakes and already admitted to it earlier in this thread.

Just curious as to how you can take sides and attempt bashing me while praising Genocide, who's been proven to lie and deceive for a very long time.

Sort of like Reborn.

Aircraftkiller"A rifle has destructive power comparable to that of a thermonuclear warhead."

They both kill people - therefore, they would be comparable.

I don't know the story on Genocide faking his death, so I won't pretend to. However, maybe he was trying to durm up support for his mods. A thread might have gone something like this:

"OMG Genocide is dead? What about all his great mods?"

"NOOOO RENEGADE WILL NEVER BE THE SAME AGAIN!"

"I know! Someone get an African Shaman quick to resurrect him!"

"I got a rate quote from Shamans "R" Us.. We need to pool $4,500 fast!"

"Ill design 4 websites dedicated to nothing but fans of Genocide's mods!"

"I'll throw in a thousand bucks for the shaman thing!"

"OMG LI3K U GUYS ARE S00 GULLIBLE! LOL U NOOBS!"

"Oh my god, he insulted our trys to get Genocide back! Someone get a hitman on him!"

"I'll spam his IP!"

"I'll make a virus to stop his CPU fan and melt his computer!"

"I've got 300 for the shaman!"

[Genocide]"Hey guys, I was just kidding about the whole "death" thing! Just pulling your leg a bit..."

"YES! THE SAVIOR!"

While I severely doubt this is how it went down, it could happen.

It's not much of an edit. All I did was remove the text and add text. So you're saying the current Fisting of Ass banner sucks?

Voice your opinion all you want, just be prepared to go in circles since you can't seem to defend what you're saying.

Happy St Patricks Day.

Now i don't really have to explain what happened to my "death" , but i will because you know..you lot deserve it.

Back last year , i think it was summer i went away to a vocal course and im not the only one who uses the computer in the house as we are a "family", well when i got back i was real mad at my family and friends as they had gained access to my computer and done quite a bit of damage and you know what i had to do? yeah i had to pick myself up and ack has had a grudge against me since but now you know.

About WWII: Warpath:

I have a HP Pavillion MX70 pc that runs XP and back when i was running warpath i didnt have firewalls,anti-virus and the latest XP patches..my pc crashed around once a month so i was very stressed alot of the time, After time went along i wasn't getting any pc crashes so i thought it wasnt going to happen and i created alot of work for Warpath and then the ironic thing happens, i get a pc crash. Now when i get pc crashes it brings up a blue screen with exception codes, i contacted PC shop and they said only thing that would get your pc working was to format, and so i had to do that and lost all the files from warpath.

Now, if you go and look at Windows Updates, there is an update there that shows HP Pavillion pc can crash on the XP operating system, proof, and i guess its up to you to belive what you think but it did happened and i was so mad atmyslf i had to get away, i hated myself because i had let the community down..so what did i do? whilst i was away for a few months i was working on a new mod called Fist of Fate a medieval mod that was to say sorry for what went wrong.

Im real sorry guys about Warpath , halo38 released some of the maps a while back.

So there you go, FOF is here and i want to thank all its supporters for doing a good job supporting it, keep those banners coming and remember the forums and website address:

back it up on CD-R or partition hard drive into c and d. put ONLY mod work in d: and format c:?

The computer shop was wrong. All you needed to do was put in your Windows XP CD and either repair your installation or do a new installation without formatting.

WTF Lynne didn't die? This is confusing now . . . I think Fist of Fate looks pretty cool, I like medieval types of games such as Morrowind, WarCraft games, Diablo games, and Savage. Fist of Fate looks pretty good and I'm hoping the skelotons will look cool and be scary looking. Also I can't wait to drive a Catapult or Balista or something like that.
