You can see my Delorean at:

Http://www.Delorean.Dr-oblivion.com (My first site ever, please excuse it)

But the thing is my model, its perfect, and i say that with no ego.

Its not textured yet so i showed the wire mesh.

Its a delorean, i couldnt find a good side shot from my site, and its too dark to go get one.

*****

This isnt for renegade i made it for Re-Volt about a year ago, i just came across it and was surprised

I seriously doubt that...

But you can't tell anything from that crappy picture, take a couple screenshots of the model this time.

This is a delorean...

Your model hardly matches the delorean, the shape of your model is wrong.

i dont even know why i posted this, i am sick right now, my mind is kinda out of it.

I would delete the post, it doesnt even have to do with anything.

But this is what the original ZModeler Version looked like.....and of course i know what they look like, because i have one.

I never finished the texture
