Who do you think is the better mapper? Titan or ACK? And dont try and make this into something about how much Titan sucks balls or how ACK is gay. And I swear all hell will break loose if either of those two come on here trying to cuss each other out.

UMMM Glacier is the worst map on renegade in my opinion, but besides for that all of ACKS maps are awsome. I really liked the basian_TS i think it was called

So i would have to vote ACK, but titian aint bad either.

It depends, ACK's maps look much better but Titan's maps have better gameplay.

I like both of their maps, though ACK's maps are more popular than Titan's both are great maps in my opinion and I enjoy playing most of their maps. To bad both wasn't an option, or is it?

I bet that when ACK sees this topic, he will start flaming anyone that says something bad about his maps. That is fine with me, because I have no opinion.

Ack's skill and work ethic are definately unmatched, but Titan has put out some of my favorite maps. Personally, I like Titan a lot more, he's a great guy, but Ack is a better mapper if you look at the raw facts.

Well he's always saying how Titan's work sucks, so I think that means he cares who is a better mapper.

No, that has nothing to do with the fact that Acks a BETTER mapper. It just has to do with his opinion of Titan's work.

We really dont need a thread asking who's better....

I have played alot of Fun maps for this game.....and in the long run the author doesnt really matter...it's if that map is still in rotation somewhere.

Me and ACK and alot of others DO put alot of work into mapping or modding for this game....no matter his or my or your opnion is, we do spend alot of time doing this.

I Spend almost all of my spare time mapping for Renegade...And when this dickhead says things like "your map suxxx" without even playing it on a server, It shows me how selfish he really is and could care less about everyone else who plays this game.

What alot of you dont know is...ACK was given alot of maps to him completely layed out...He touched up some of the Terrain,Applied textures and released it.

I appreciate him doing this for us and getting us new maps....but how dare he put down others for creating maps on there own and attempting to make a map from scratch, when he knows how much of a long process it is.

and if you look at his self made maps...there really isnt alot to them.

So, It's not about whos a better map maker,its more along the lines of which maps are being enjoyed the most out on the servers.
