Is option 3 that "privacy" shit?

Or is it "Add these to your order!"

Just look for a button saying "NO FUCKING WAY!" etc...

It's the "Choose Hosting and Website Options" page, the options are . . .

Hosting my domains with a turbocharged godaddy.com plan
Building a website for these domains

Hosting these domains elsewhere and finally

Using one of my free options.

Those are all of the options I am given. Maybe I should try elsewhere . . . any suggestions?

Oh, choose "Hosting these domains elsewhere". You just change the Nameservers to where ever you will be hosted at then.

That's standard, it just takes 24 hours for the DNS to resolve.
