Figured I'd show this to everyone since the MOTD is up and running now.

I know Crammy already posted something similar, but this proves that we're not all joking about the beta test.

EDIT

Nevermind.

(Hey, I have the same Winamp skin as Aircraftkiller)

The top banner rotates between 4 banners.

Two Nod, two GDI.

Meh, just like the old Renegade official website.

Can't you just use the Renguard.com design?

Because they are too lazy to get off their fucking asses even though it's been down for about a year already. :rolleyes: Fuck EA.

Hall & Oates made a few good songs. I only have Private Eyes, Method of Modern Love, Maneater, and Everything Your Heart Desires.

I listen to 80s music, mainly. If I'm not listening to that, I have grunge rock, classic rock, or modern rock on my playlist.

My list is 95% 80s stuff right now because I lost everything I had downloaded before my computer format, too many songs to backup.

Or, you can just check this KB to MB converter and we find that...

11,836 KB equals 11.55859375 MB.

Its my way of saying 11,000 k because everything in the task manager is in K, why change it?
Makes for easier comparison.
