Ok I bet you have been wanting to run a server for ages now but just cant find a valid serail. Well I have a few serails that I am not using so I thought hay I may as well swap them for a Renegade serail.

So what I am trying to say is if you have an extra Renegade Game serail I am willing to give you a FDS serail in return.

If you are interested contact me on MSN at martinclimbeshotmail.com or email me.

MarsnipeWell I have a few serails that I am not using so I thought hay I may as well swap them for a Renegade serail.

#1) It's serial

#2) It's not exactly a Free FDS Serial if you are wanting something in return, now is it....?

#3) Good luck getting anyone to bite.

lol the FDS serial is something people get for free, while the game serial will cost people money. I woudn't make that sort of trade.

game costs less then $10 if you can find it, get off your arse and go buy a few. then give your fds serials for free lol

But you are missing the definition of the word "Free".

Quote:free

Costing nothing; gratuitous: a free meal.

Your FDS serial would be given out for Free if you weren't getting something in return for it. So it's not free.

No... If the person is not using the serial, and then trade that unused serial for a FDS serial it would be... a TRADE. Not free. Doesn't matter anyway, like I said before, no one will go for it. If you were actually trying to help Renegade out instead of get something for nothing, you might have some takers. Just give the FDS serials for NOTHING, you'll see more servers.

Yes you can, if you bitch and moan at EA long enough they will give you one. I gave mine away to crimson for free. Infact, I have never seen anyone get anything in return for giveing away a Serial. Further more, its probaly illgal to do som, because you are profiting off of something someone else owns the rights too.

I read in a thread that someone had bugged ea till they went to the server and sent them a serial. But okay... whatever.

Yes, you are absolutly correct, profit is when you get more for something then you paid for it yourself.

How much did you pay for those fds serial? Nothing correct?

How much do you pay for a Game serial? I payed about $50 for mine. Corse now its only worth about $10. Okay so, you give me something worth $0, I give you something worth $10. For you, thats a $10 profit...

Yay! I am a "chicken" and I can do math! I must be the smartest chicken alive! Oh, nm, I am not a chicken...

MarsnipeProfeting is getting more that you sell it for.

Actually, Profiting is getting more than you BOUGHT it for. When Cpo64 says you are profiting by receiving Game Serials (that someone else bought) in return for something you paid nothing for, that is a profit. You are getting something for nothing, which is considered a profit. Just because the server that you were able to register FDS serials from is not working anymore, doesn't mean you need to charge for them (even if it's not monetary). It just means those who want them have to receive them from another source. Of course, they *could* pay for them if they believed it was a just deal, but most would not. Since they were FREE (there is that word again) to begin with, they should remain FREE. Besides, what would having more GAME serials do to benefit you? Other than giving them to those who didn't obtain the game by legal means. I guess we could chalk this up as another reason why you won't receive a GAME serial here... Since it would most likely go to support warez, which isn't supported in these forums. Besides, you shouldn't need any more serials, since you say you have so many:

MarsnipeWe have 9 members and the things we have are:

Webpage (Form)
2 Renegade Dedicated Servers
6 Counter-Strike Servers
Lots of Serails for members

Here's a question... Why would any of your members need any more serials for a game they should already own?

You were offering to give away RENEGADE serials, Marsnipe is giving away FDS SERIALS. Following so far? If not, read the paragraph again and repeat until you understand.

Understand now? Good. MaGiC was saying he gave away 2 RENEGADE SERIALS, now think about that. Why would you WANT a Renegade serial when you want a FDS serial? He was clearly talking about Marsnipe.

Quote:Never argue with an idiot. They drag you down to their level, then beat you with experience.

But before I sink to your level...

Not everyone is having a problem with the delivery system. If you do, it can be solved by going directly to EA and asking for a serial. It's been said time after time after time in these forums. People every day are receiving new serials.

Also, many are asking so there isn't an overflow of them. if you have an extra one, why not give it away instead of letting it go to waste? ever think of that?

You basically gave him the right to be an idiot. He can get his serial banned. See how I spelled it? SERIAL, that is how you spell it correctly, please learn that. Back to my point, now he can get his serial banned and reinstall and be an idiot again.

Also, you could have sold your renny serials. You could have gotten free FDS serials and then have sold your renny serials. But instead you gave him renny serials for free serials. He came out with a profit. It isn't that big of a deal that you gave them away instead of selling them, but you pretty much gave serials away to someone who will be using them idiotically.
