Actually, my school changed their layout earlier this year and for it being purple and yellow it's pretty pimp.

All of your schools sites are way better, lol the site for my schol has a new layout every page and a lot of stuff does not work properly. It's kind of funny that they didn't proffread the pages or anything at all to make sure that they looked ok before uploadign them. Actually check oout some of the stuff on my site, you'll learn really wuick how shitty it was, it was made by some students on crack. A chimpanse (Spelling) could do better.

MrBobThat is so funny that site sucks! But, then again, so do most public schools altogether.

Considering that site was done BY average 8th grade students, the page is a good start. Compared to more professionally done school websites, of course it looks pitiful.

Anyway, my high school's web site is as follows: <http://www.mvcsc.k12.in.us/mvhs/>

MrBobAnd rm5428, you live in Mclean? Somebody's daddy is wealthy , lol. I live in Fredericksburg.

A funny story about that, my school (McLean) thinks that Langly (rival school) is also wealthy, and over in Anendale they think that everybody coming to my school drives BMW's.

<http://www.holyghostprep.org> The site was made from nothing last year as part of their advanced comuting topics/networking. I get to help out with the site, rather I "help" with it. It's weird that our school gets e-mails asking which company designed the site.

lol a lot of you guys go to church schools

My schools "new" site just as sucky as the last, teh sad part is, we are THE FIRST complely wireless school district in the nation and one of the first in the world (as there are wires EVERYWHERE in teh cieling, you can walk from one builiding to the other end and never loose access with the very HIGH speed internet, we have 30 dell labtops in everyroom, and NO chalkboards for us, we have smart boards. I dont know how to explain them but they are plugged into a computer and everything that is on the computer is shown on the screen its complely flat and takes up most of the wall so its a HUGE screen, and you touch it with yoru hands to do stuff so its like a big touch screen THIS IS ALL A PUBLIC SCHOOL WE WON A GRANT), and we still have a shity site.

click schools and then carlisle high school for mine and u can see pics of some of it.

Ya, I guess mine is a little better. Sad thing is they only update it like twice a year.

Its surprising how many people you run into on the internet who live near you.
