funny. but that doesn't look like an email address to me. and even if it were, clicking it wouldn't get you anywhere, that is... if you were able to even click on it.

1. Shoot the enemies.

2. Try not to shoot your own people.
3. The beacon goes on the enemies' pedestal.
4. Bullets hurt your player, so try not to get hit.
5. "If you make it too hard for them to get in, you won't be able to get out

(btw, check the Tactics and Strategies forum)

Outwar is some link you click on to build the moron's "army". Everyone they get to click on their link gets added to their "army". I put the domain in the censor filter to replace it with "I'm a n00b".
